INTRODUCTION TO E-MAIL

SUFFOLK, Virginia (November 4, 2011) E-mail plays an important part in our lives today, from keeping in touch with friends and family, sharing photographs of loved ones, online shopping, and even employment. Join us on Thursday, December 8, 2011, at the North Suffolk Public Library at 9:00 a.m. for a basic introduction to Gmail and to set up your own email account. Basic computer skills are required for this class, and registration begins on Monday, November 28, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. Registration is required for this free class. A library card in good standing is required for all Suffolk Public Library computer classes. The North Suffolk Public Library is located at 2000 Bennett's Creek Park Road. Please call 757-514-7150 to register.
