- Suffolk Leadership Academy

The City of Suffolk and the Suffolk Leadership Academy Planning Committee proudly announce the thirteenth annual Suffolk Leadership Academy. The current academy is scheduled to begin on January 17, 2012, and will continue for 8 sessions. The Suffolk Leadership Academy is designed to develop and strengthen leadership skills for citizens desirous of serving the community in various roles, as well as to foster a better understanding of the workings in City and State Government. Sessions will be held in Council Chambers and include instruction in the theory and practical application of leadership by Mr. W. Ross Boone. Topics this year include the History of Suffolk, Local Government, Economic Development & Regionalism, Tourism, Agriculture, Education and Volunteerism. Special trips to the General Assembly in Richmond and a tour of Suffolk are included in the class as well.
